9. i) Oprah Winfrey is thought of as the "Queen to Talk" since the mid-1980's. She is the first African American Women to host a national week day talk show. In addition, opera is one of the richest and most powerful African American women in American. Her life story makes her success notable. ii) Oprah was born January 29, 1954 on a farm in Kosciusko, Mississippi. She is the product of a brief meeting between a 20 year old Vernon Winfrey and an 18 year old Vernita Lee. Winfrey was in service when Oprah was born. Winfrey, apparently learned of Oprah's birth when he received a printed baby announcement in the mail with a scribbled note: "send clothes!" Vernita, Orphans mother left Mississippi soon after the birth of Oprah, leaving her young child with her material grandparents'. Oprah stayed at her grandparents place until she was six years old. iii) As a young child , oprah was raised on the farm in the rural tradition ,receiving whipping and harsh chastisement as punishment for wrong doing .At the age of six she moved to milwaukee to live with her mother ,who was working as a house cleaner .Rarely at home because of her work demands,vernita had a difficult time providing for the emotional needs of the intelligent ,high -sprint Oprah. iv) Several sources have relayed the creative ways Oprah tried to get her mother's attention .Once, her mother refused to buy her a new pair of eyeglasses-calming that she couldn't afford it. Oprah then staged a fake burglary at her home. She said that she had been knocked unconscious, and during the ordeal her glasses had broken. Another time, she ran away from home. While on the street, she ran away from home. While on the street, she approached Aretha Franklin's limousine and convinced the singer that she was an abandoned child. Franklin is said to have giving her $100.Oprah's last antic involved her frantic attempt to keep a broken puppy. She created a table about the brave puppy fending off robbers. She even added a bit of realism to the "scene "by tossing her mother's jewellery out of the window. v) At the age of nine, and for several years thereafter, Oprah was sexually abused by a teenage cousin and then by other relatives and friends. She spoke openly about this on her talk shown in 1991.At the time, she offered support and showed empathy to guests and viewers who had gone through similar painful experiences. In an article for Essence, she admitted that she couldn't free herself of the shame she felt until 1990, when she finally admitted, "I was not responsible for the abuse."The molestation Oprah experienced in Milwaukee ended when, at the age of 14, she went to live with her father in Nashville. vi) While under the care of her father, she flourished and honed many of her communication skills.
